

Visit to Both side of Iguazu Falls, 3 days / 2 nights

Visit one of the world's natural wonders, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, featuring 270 waterfalls over 3km of tropical jungle that join the Argentine and Brazil borders.

Do not miss the chance to walk along the paths, stairways, bridges and balconies through the jungle of Iguazú National Park. Take some time out to watch the native wildlife (tapirs, monkeys and hundreds of plant species), and be as amazed by them as the Spanish explorer – Alvarez Nuñez Cabeza de Vaca – did in 1541.

Day 1 – Arrival to Iguazu, visit to Brazilian side of Falls

Transfer from the airport to the hotel. In the afternoon, visit the Brazilian National Park where multicolored butterflies and amazing rainbows, created by the spray of the thundering water, fill the air. Reaching the hotel Das Cataratas, feast your eyes on the panoramic view of the falls

After excursion is over you will be transferred back to your hotel

Overnight at Hotel in Iguazu

Day 2 - Full day Tour of Argentinean Side of Falls with Great Adventure Excursion

Iguazú Falls - Argentina Side. Walk the paths and bridges of the splendid Iguazú National Park, and be amazed with the surrounding virgin lush vegetation and it's amazing flora and fauna. Take a bath at the falls while trekking the upper and lower walks.

Enjoy a ride on the ecological train and walk along a path that takes you to the imposing Devil's Throat canyon.

Be brave enough to go on a motorboat on the Iguazú River, to give you an unforgettable panoramic view of the falls, and ending with a "shower" under them! Go through the rainforest in open-top 4 x 4 trucks, perfect for picture taking. Then you are ready to go back to the quietness of the hotel.
